The Master's Message

Greetings Brethren, I hope this finds you well. Since our last newsletter, we have had lots going on in the Lodge. First and foremost, I'd like to let everyone know that the old red carpet is gone! Through fundraising, donations from our Lodge Brothers, and help from the appendant bodies that also use our lodge building, we have now installed a clean, new blue carpet throughout the upstairs of the Lodge. If you haven't been in already to see it, you have a great chance this coming Tuesday, April 16, as we raise two new brothers to Master Masons. The meal starts at 6:00 PM and the degrees start at 7:00 PM. These won't be the first degrees conferred on the carpet, we had an Entered Apprentice degree last Tuesday, initiating one new Brother.

If you are at the Lodge and see Brothers Skinner, Babb or Sabey be sure to thank them for all of their hard work in getting the carpet done and all of the other improvements to our foyer and lobby.

This year has been so busy! We have had degree work every month this year. We will continue to work to improve on our communications to you. We would love to have a strong turnout for every degree. Brother Markee has been doing great work in our kitchen at every function and you don't want to miss his food.

Grand Lodge week was in March and Greeneville Lodge was well represented. We had at least 12 Brothers attend to represent us in the Grand York Rite as well as in the Grand Lodge. Companion Joe Byrd was elected Right Excellent Grand Scribe in the Grand Chapter. Companion Robin Wilhoit was installed as the Excellent Grand Sentinel for the Grand Chapter. Companion John Sayne was installed as Illustrious Grand Steward and Grand Pancake Maker in the Grand Council. Companion Doyle Skinner received the Grand Council Youth Leadership Award and Sir Knight Joe Byrd received the Knight Commander of the Temple, the second highest award from the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar. Congratulations to all of you for your accomplishments.

Fraternally,

Dwayne Wells, WM

Grand Lodge 2019

The Greeneville Masonic Bodies were well represented at Grand Lodge this year. Pictured below are members of Greeneville who were elected and appointed as Grand York Rite officers this year. Companion Joe Byrd was elected Right Excellent Grand Scribe for the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, Companion John Sayne was appointed Illustrious Grand Steward for the Grand Council of Cryptic Masons, and Companion Robin Wilhoit was appointed Excellent Grand Sentinel for the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. This is Companion Sayne and Companion Wilhoit's first time serving as Grand officers. Companion Doyle Skinner received the Grand Council Cryptic Mason Youth Leadership award for his years of service as a Boy Scout Leader. Sir Knight Joe Byrd received the Knight Companion of the Temple award for his dedication to Freemasonry and service to the community.
