KARL SABEY - WORSHIPFUL MASTER

IN THIS ISSUE: GROUP MEETING

Greeneville Lodge News

The inaugural Tri-State Nolichucky River degree was a huge success. On July 21, Brothers from North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee came together on the banks of the Nolichucky River for a Master Mason degree. In attendance were four Past Grand Masters, three Past Grand Commanders, one Past Grand High Priest, and one Past Illustrious Grand Master.

Special thanks to the Robinson family for the use of their property and to the officers and members of Greeneville Lodge for their efforts. Everyone enjoyed the food, fellowship, and the new location.

On Saturday, July 7, Greeneville hosted the Chapter and Council district group meeting. Officers and members from upper Northeast Tennessee welcomed Most Excellent Grand High Priest Richard Petty Jr. and Most Illustrious Grand Master David Lacy. Right Eminent Grand Commander Burks

Taylor and Most Worshipful Grand Master Dickie McKinney, along with several other Grand officers were in attendance.

Greeneville Commandery No. 43 will be having their annual inspection on Thursday, August 23. A meal will be served at 6:00 p.m. with the meeting at 7:00 p.m. All Officers and members are encouraged to attend as we will welcome Right Eminent Grand Commander Burks Taylor and his Grand officers.

The Knoxville Scottish Rite will be holding a summer reunion the first three Saturdays in August. If you are not a member of the Scottish Rite and interested in joining, please see the Secretary for a petition and details.
