KARL SABEY - WORSHIPFUL MASTER

IN THIS ISSUE: CTC 2018

Greeneville Lodge News

Final preparations will be underway in the weeks to come for a busy month in July. The Nolichucky River degree is set for July 21. Lunch will be served at 11 a.m. with the degree to follow. This year Most Worshipful Grand Master Dickie McKinney and his Grand officers will be conferring the Master Mason degree.

Next month the Greeneville York Rite bodies will be hosting the annual York Rite group meeting on Saturday, July 7. This year there will be a special degree for the York Rite ladies at 10 a.m. prior to lunch. Past Grand Master Orville Armstrong will be conferring the degree.

Brother John Sayne returned from Alexandria, Virginia where he participated in the 7th annual Celebrating the Craft sponsored by the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction. This was his third time performing at the event. He performed two songs on the piano and had a solo part in the grand finale. The 5-hour event raised just shy of $1.2 million. Half of these donations raised will support rebuilding the House of the Temple campaign and the other half will go back to the local Scottish Rite Valleys to assist in charitable endeavors.
