GREENEVILLE LODGE NO. 3 F. & A. M.

IN THIS ISSUE: BREAKFAST

Greeneville Lodge News

Final preparations are being made for the Grand Lodge sessions this month in Nashville. If you are a voting member of the Grand Lodge, it is strongly urged that you attend this year. As many of you already know, there are some very important proposals that have been made. After the March Grand Lodge session has concluded, Freemasonry in Tennessee will be changed forever one way or another. Regardless of the outcome, it is reasonable to believe that membership in Tennessee will decline.

Please try to attend the stated meeting March 1st. After attending the Conference of Grand Masters in Madison, Wisconsin, the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master has a message that will be presented by Brother Joe Byrd of the Grand Lodge Education Committee.

On February 13th, Greeneville Commandery of Knights Templar held a pancake breakfast as a fundraiser for the Holy Land Pilgrimage. There was a great turnout for the breakfast and fed 43 people. The breakfast consisted of pancakes, sausage, and scrambled eggs. The entire event went very smooth thanks to great teamwork. The Commandery was able to raise around $900 profit from the breakfast.

Greeneville Commandery No. 43 will be holding an Easter Observance on March 28th at 6:30 p.m. The Observance is open to the public. The Commandery will have their regular stated business meeting following the Easter Observance.

The Knoxville Scottish Rite Reunion will be held March 5th and 12th. The Upper East Tennessee York Rite Association is making final plans for the Spring Festival in April. The Festival is scheduled for April 16th and 23rd at Kingsport Lodge.

Please note that due to Grand Lodge in Nashville, the Knoxville Scottish Rite will be meeting on Tuesday March 15th at 7:30 p.m.

Knoxville Scottish Rite Reunion

The Knoxville Scottish Rite Reunion will be held Saturday March 5th and Saturday March 12th. If you are interested in joining the Scottish Rite, please see Brother John Sayne or the Secretary for details. Deadline for petitions is March 2nd.

If you are currently a member of the Scottish Rite, please try to attend the Reunion. There will be many jobs to do that need your help. Most of the work that needs to be done does not have any speaking parts. Not interested in working? Come out and enjoy the degree work. So far, we have more than 20 candidates. 2 of the candidates are from Greeneville Lodge No. 3. Come out and help make this Reunion a great one!
