JOHN WALTER SAYNE - WORSHIPFUL MASTER

IN THIS ISSUE: GRAND LODGE WEEK

The Worshipful Master's Address

March is finally here and is an important month for Freemasonry in Tennessee. Sunday, March 19, marks the beginning of Grand Lodge week. Several dinners and festivities will occur during the week. I strongly encourage all Past Masters, current Masters, sitting Wardens, Secretaries, and fellow Brothers to attend this special event.

Grand Lodge week is a little extra special for Greenville Lodge this year as we will say farewell and thank you to our first Grand Master of Tennessee, Brother Billy Ray Cutlip. It has been a pleasure to serve a portion of my term as Master of Greenville Lodge during his year as Grand Master. Brother Cutlip will go down in history as one of the great Grand Masters of Tennessee.

On behalf of our Excellent High Priest of the York Rite Chapter, Companion Dwayne Wells, I would like to invite you to the Chapter degrees to be held on April 8th at Greenville Chapter No. 135. This year, the Upper East Tennessee York Rite Association will be holding one festival this year. This festival will be spread out over three months. The Chapter degrees will be held on April 8th. The Council degrees will be held in May, and the Commandery Orders will be held in April. This will hopefully give all of the local Commanderies an active candidate for inspection.

Having our first Grand Master, many eyes have been looking at Greenville Lodge this past year. I want to thank our officers and members for being a positive example of what Freemasonry can and should be.

Fraternally,

John Walter Sayne
Worshipful Master
