IN THIS ISSUE: SPRING FESTIVAL

Greeneville Lodge News

This month our monthly newsletter has reached a new milestone. Our May 2018 issue marks our 50th publication of Guiding Light. As Managing Editor for this publication, I want to thank you all for your continued support. I would also like to personally thank Brother Joe Byrd for his contribution. He frequently provides content and proof reads each month's issue to make sure all the "Ts" are crossed and "Is" are dotted.

The Upper East Tennessee York Rite Association just concluded a very successful spring festival. There was a total of 23 candidates who received the York Rite degrees and orders. Brother Jeff Markee became a member of Greeneville's Chapter, Council, and Commandery. Most Excellent Grand High Priest Richard Petty was in attendance both days of the festival and Grand Commander Burks Taylor was in attendance for the Commandery Orders.

On April 9th, District 22 welcomed Most Worshipful Grand Master Dickie McKinney and his Grand Officers at the district meeting. Greeneville Lodge was well represented, having most of the officers in attendance. The Grand Officers gave informative presentations and there was good food and fellowship enjoyed by all.

Brother John Sayne has been invited to return to Washington D.C. in May to perform live for Celebrating the Craft. This event is sponsored by the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction.

Celebrating the Craft

Brother John Sayne has been invited to return to Washington D.C. and perform live for the 7th annual Celebrating the Craft. This is a televised event online and highlights the Scottish Rite and Freemasonry. The show is organized like a telethon to help raise funds for the House of the Temple restoration project and RiteCare speech therapy for children. This year half of your donation will come back to Tennessee in support of charities in the Volunteer state.

Celebrating the Craft also provides a great opportunity to learn more about the Scottish Rite and what Freemasonry is about. I hope you will tune in with your family and friends to give them insight about our great fraternity.

Brother Sayne is a pianist and vocalist from the Scottish Rite Valley of Knoxville. He will be performing two songs during the show. Times will be announced through Facebook before the show.
